Hi, I'm Jatin Rawat

A passionate student who loves learning, building projects, and exploring technology to solve real-world problems.

View My Work

About Me

A short introduction about who I am and what I do.

I am a dedicated student with a keen interest in web development, problem-solving, and modern technologies. I enjoy turning ideas into simple and meaningful digital experiences.

Currently, I am focusing on improving my skills in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, while also exploring design principles and responsive layouts.

Outside academics, I like reading, playing games, and learning new tools that help me grow personally and professionally.

Skills & Projects

Some of the technologies I work with and projects I've built.

HTML & CSS

Built multiple static web pages with clean structure, semantic tags, and responsive layouts.

Responsive Design

Created layouts that work smoothly on mobiles, tablets, and desktops using Flexbox and media queries.

Mini Portfolio Project

Designed this student portfolio as a mini project to showcase my profile, skills, and contact form.
